Richard Hart's 1969 Jaguar E-Type Coupe

Richard's "Emma" has been with this school teacher and artist since 1991. He was teaching art in a Chicago school when he found Emma advertised for sale in his Green Bay, Wisconsin hometown newspaper. He had wanted an E Type like her since childhood, seduced by the Matchbox model shown at right.

Matchbox Lesney No. 41

Jaguar D Type on eBay

Then again, who among us have not been seduced by a model of one type or another?

Richard's seduction was of the nature of form appreciation. I can appreciate that. These D and E type bodies had lines and curves that screamed artistic impression, and Richard appreciated that. His modern art creations echo those design elements.

You can often find his art on exhibit at the Tri-Lakes Center for the Arts in Palmer Lake.

Richard's automotive appreciation matured, if that word can be applied to such a thing, with immersion in the California car culture of the 60's. Personalities like "The Rat Fink" and "Big Daddy Roth" engraved hot rods and muscle cars on the psyche of America's youth. Songs like "Dead Man's Curve", a 1964 hit by Jan and Dean detailing a teen street race between a Corvette Sting Ray and a Jaguar XKE on West

Sunset Blvd., carved elements of kid's characters. Who didn't want a Sting Ray or a Jaguar when the legend of D-Type Le Mans 24-hour race wins of 1955, 1956, and 1957 reverberated in pop culture? This rivalry extends into the present, with JCSC members owning the odd Corvette.

Richard Hart's 1969 Jaguar E-Type Coupe

So, Richard had to have her. He purchased Emma from friends of his family, still living pretty much just around the block in Green Bay, and he took her to Chicago where he embarked on his ongoing rolling renovation odyssey. Winter of '99 saw a bare metal restoration. Emma's suspension has been rebuilt with competition components, making her one racy dame. She sat out another winter elevated at nine thousand feet at the end of one rocky and rutted Rocky Mountain road above Aspen.

Being a series 4.2, one of only 17,320 made, she's essentially an upgraded '69 Jag built with a fair proportion of '68 parts. Here is how Wikipedia describes these 1967–68 transitional models, unofficially called "Series 1½": "... externally similar to Series 1 cars. Due to American pressure the new features were open headlights, different switches, and some de-tuning (using two Zenith-Stromberg carburettors instead of the original three SUs) for US models. ... United States federal safety law affecting 1968 model year cars sold in the US was the reason for the lack of headlight covers and change in switch design in the "Series 1.5" of 1968. An often overlooked change, one that is often "modified back" to the older style, is the wheel knock-off "nut." US safety law for 1968 models also forbid the winged-spinner knockoff, and any 1968 model year sold in the US should have a hexagonal knockoff nut, to be hammered on and off with the assistance of a special "socket" included with the car from the factory."

As for the rest of it, I'll let Emma speak for herself. Enjoy this gallery of photos.

Jaguar Foundation

Jaguar Foundation

Tom Krefetz, a member of the Board of Directors for the Jaguar Foundation, is pleased to announce his support for the recently established Jaguar Foundation. The Foundation has been created by passionate Jaguar people who donate their time, resources, and services with the goal of better serving the Jaguar Heritage and preserving the marque for future generations. We aim to leave a legacy for our children's children so that they will be able to appreciate and continue on with the work that we started.

The foundation is anticipating opening two museums, one for each coast, where Jaguar cars, books, memorabilia, and related material will be housed and viewed by the public. We are requesting that JCNA members donate any classic Jaguar related items they can to help form these new museums.

The Jaguar Foundation will give back to the Jaguar community in many ways:

- Provide annual scholarships for students interested in Jaguar Automotive Restoration to help cover the cost of tuition and training.

- Be a resource for historical information related to the heritage and restoration of Jaguar cars.

- Providing a forum for the exchange of information and ideas for Jaguar enthusiasts.

- A specialty tool loan program, with specialty tools available on loan.

- Promote the hobby and encourage people of all ages to become involved with Jaguars.

All donations are tax deductible, as the foundation is set up as a 501c3 non-profit, and we encourage all Jaguar enthusiasts to donate what they can to get the wonderful Jaguar Foundation museums filled with vintage Jaguar items. The Jaguar Foundation will accept donations such as Jaguar: cars, parts, tools, books, memorabilia, as well as financial donations. Financial donations can be made online through the Foundations website, or by check. With any Jaguar donation you will receive a receipt for your tax records.

We encourage all Jaguar enthusiasts to become a Patron of the Jaguar Foundation.

There are multiple levels to meet your needs:

- $30 for a Patron
- $250 for a Bronze Level Patron
- $500 for a Silver Level Patron
- $1,000 to $2,500 for a Gold level Patron
- $2,500 and above for a Platinum Patron

There will also be 2 levels available for Corporate Patrons - $3,500-$5,000 and $5,000 and above.
