THE JAGUAR LIFE STYLE

The Jaguar in the Family

My dad bought a 1952 XK-120 in 1955 and dreamed of being a race driver. He went to many road races and joined a car club that held events year round.

He drove his Jaguar in several races, including winter runs on the frozen lakes.

When he became a family man, the two seater was let go for 1200 dollars. This car was revered as "Daddy's Jag" for my whole life.

THE JAGUAR LIFE STYLE

The Jaguar in the Family

Seventy years later I drive my Mark 2 through Colorado with a sense that I am sharing the same enthusiasm, hearing the same exhaust notes, feeling the same steering and gearbox vibrations, and bringing him along with me to the events I attend.

4th Annual E-Vent

The 4th Annual “E-VENT” took place on Saturday, October 15th at the Scottsdale Plaza Resort in Scottsdale Arizona. The event was hosted by the Sports & Collector Car Center celebrating the beauty of Jaguar.

Joe Ritz of Sports & Collector Car Center said we invited Jaguar E-Type owners to get together and show their cars in 2013. What started as a casual meeting is now celebrating the forth annual event with over twenty five Jaguar E-Types in attendance.

he quality of cars ranged from daily drivers to very high quality show cars. This was a relaxed and enjoyable car show that focused on beautiful E-Types while supporting the car community with a bulletin board allowing the postings of parts for sale and cars for sale in addition to a booth offering the purchase of shirts, trinkets and raffle tickets for two bicycles, supporting fallen police and fallen firefighters.

Pictured above are about twenty five E-Types parked at the Scottsdale Plaza Resort on a beautiful Arizona morning. The cars were arranged in two rows and had several examples of Series 1, a couple of Series 1.5, Series 2 and Series 3 cars shown below.
