Rambler Ranch

The Jaguar Club of Southern Colorado visited the Rambler Ranch on Sunday, August 14 after breakfast at the Spring Valley Golf Club in Elizabeth, CO.

The Rambler Ranch contains a vast collection of nearly everything related to the history of Rambler, AMC, Kelvinator and any other companies that were in any way connected to the Rambler name.

The photos included in this newsletter do not reflect the Rambler portion of the tour.

However, we did find a Jaguar in the museum.

... And a brand new AMC Matador!

Rambler Ranch

A LOT of American Motors cars in pristine condition and even a little Crosley fire truck just for the kids.

Colorado Conclave

The Colorado English Motoring Conclave will host the 33rd All British Car and Bike Meet on Saturday and Sunday, September 17th and 18th at Oak Park, 10425 W. 64th Place, Arvada, Colorado.

This is a big event with over 500 British cars and motorcycles representing most all marques. There is a "Ride the Rockies" tour on Saturday, the 17th starting at 8:30 AM and the car show & swap meet is on Sunday, the 18th, with registration beginning at 7:30 AM. There are registration fees for each activity: $20 in advance and $25 the day of the event.

All Jaguars are grouped together and RMJC typically hosts a potluck, so plan on bringing drinks and side dishes and/or desserts for lunch.

Jack Humphrey will convoy up with anyone who is interested. Departure will be a 6:00 AM at a TBD location on the north side of town. Contact Jack at jagluver2@cs.com or 719.930.4801 if you want to join the group.

Jaguar Club of New Mexico Concours

The Jaguar Club of New Mexico hosted its first official Concours d'Elegance August 18, 19 and 20 in Albuquerque. The Concours was held in conjunction with the celebration of the 90th Anniversary of Route 66.

Attending from the Jaguar Club of southern Colorado was Jack Humphrey showing his beautiful XK8 convertible and Mike Borders with his immaculate XJS now in Preservation class. Also in attendance from the southern Colorado area but not displaying cars were Lou Hardin and Bill and Olene Greenwood.

Beginning on page 8 is an excellent article with photos of the Albuquerque show written by Steve Kennedy (RMJC) and used with his permission. Thank you very much, Steve.

Albuquerque 2016 Concours

The JAGUAR Club of New Mexico's 2016 Concours was held August 18, 19 and 20th at the Albuquerque Hotel in Old Town Albuquerque. Dwight and Linda Eisnach and Harry and Linda Fegley and Leni Lambert and Ray Horrall, Mike and Deb Ramirez, Jean and Frank Oakley, Gary and Judy George and Steve and Deanie Kennedy went down from Denver. Jack Humphrey and Mike Borders and Teresa Halvorson went down from Colorado Springs. There were also members from several of the Arizona and Texas clubs as well as a number of the Jaguar Club of New Mexico Club's members there.

JCNM hosted a great Friday evening cocktail reception party at the hotel. It rained that evening and, of course, a number of people had spent all Friday afternoon getting their cars cleaned only to get rained on. Oh well!!!

The Saturday concours was held in a huge parking lot right there on the hotel grounds. There were 42 Jaguars on display. Several XK 120s and XK 140s, E-Types, XJ sedans, XK8s, a MK 2 and MK IX and the newest Jaguar there was the Oakley's F-Pace. The local dealer also had an F-Pace and XF on display. And there was a Series 2 E-Type Hearse there. This is the same Jaguar Hearse that was at the AGM/International Jaguar Festival back in April.

After the concours, they had a very nice three hour drive on old Historic Route 66. Saturday evening they hosted a great enchilada dinner. Sunday morning was the awards banquet. They had some very nice trophies in the shape of the state of New Mexico. They were all the same size with stick-on nomenclature as to which award it was. On the back they had a label with the winner's name along with their scores. A very good idea.

The Colorado contingent did very well and the scores are noted below. We look forward to their 2017 concours.
